

Bruce Chatwin – His Work and Life

SATURDAY 19 JULY 2008 (9.15 – 6.15)
BODLEIAN LIBRARY AND NEW COLLEGE
OXFORD

The aim of the symposium is to offer a forum for the collective discussion of the continuing influence and importance of Chatwin's oeuvre, the first such within the United Kingdom. It will include plenary sessions from leading writers and scholars, as well as a chaired question and answer session with Bruce Chatwin's wife Elizabeth. The day will end with a visit to the Chatwin Archive in Convocation House, Bodleian Library, followed by a wine reception.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

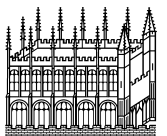

ELIZABETH CHATWIN
JONATHAN CHATWIN
MICHAEL ENGLARD
KERRY FEATHERSTONE
VRASIDAS KARALIS
ISABEL LOPEZ
LUIGI MARFE
NICHOLAS MURRAY
ANDREW PALMER
KEVIN VOLANS

Registration fee (includes lunch and wine reception): £5

For full programme and registration details, see the Centre for the Study of the Book website

www.bodley.ox.ac.uk/csb

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER

Presented by the Centre for the Study of the Book, Bodleian Library, in association with Exeter University