

A celebration of the life and collections of
Richard Gough
(1735-1809)

Gough Day at the Bodleian Library

Registration in advance is essential, unless you hold a Bodleian Reader's ticket
Please email bookcentre@bodley.ox.ac.uk

Programme

at: Seminar Room, New Library

- 10 am – 4:30 pm Display of items from the Gough collections with short talks throughout the day
- 11 am Gough topographical: Richard Gough and local history
– Julian Pooley
- 1 pm The Gough Map
– Nick Millea
- 2:30 pm William Blake's designs for Gough's 'Sepulchral Monuments'
– Mark Crosby
- 3:30 pm Psalters from the Gough collection
– Elizabeth Solopova

at: Divinity School

- 5 pm Lecture by Professor Rosemary Sweet, University of Leicester on Richard Gough's life and connections
To be followed by a reception in the Divinity School

Presented by the Centre for the Study of the Book, Bodleian Library

20 March 2009